

My Happy Easter Book

Matthew 27:57–28:10 for Children

Written by Gloria A. Truitt

Illustrated by Len Ebert

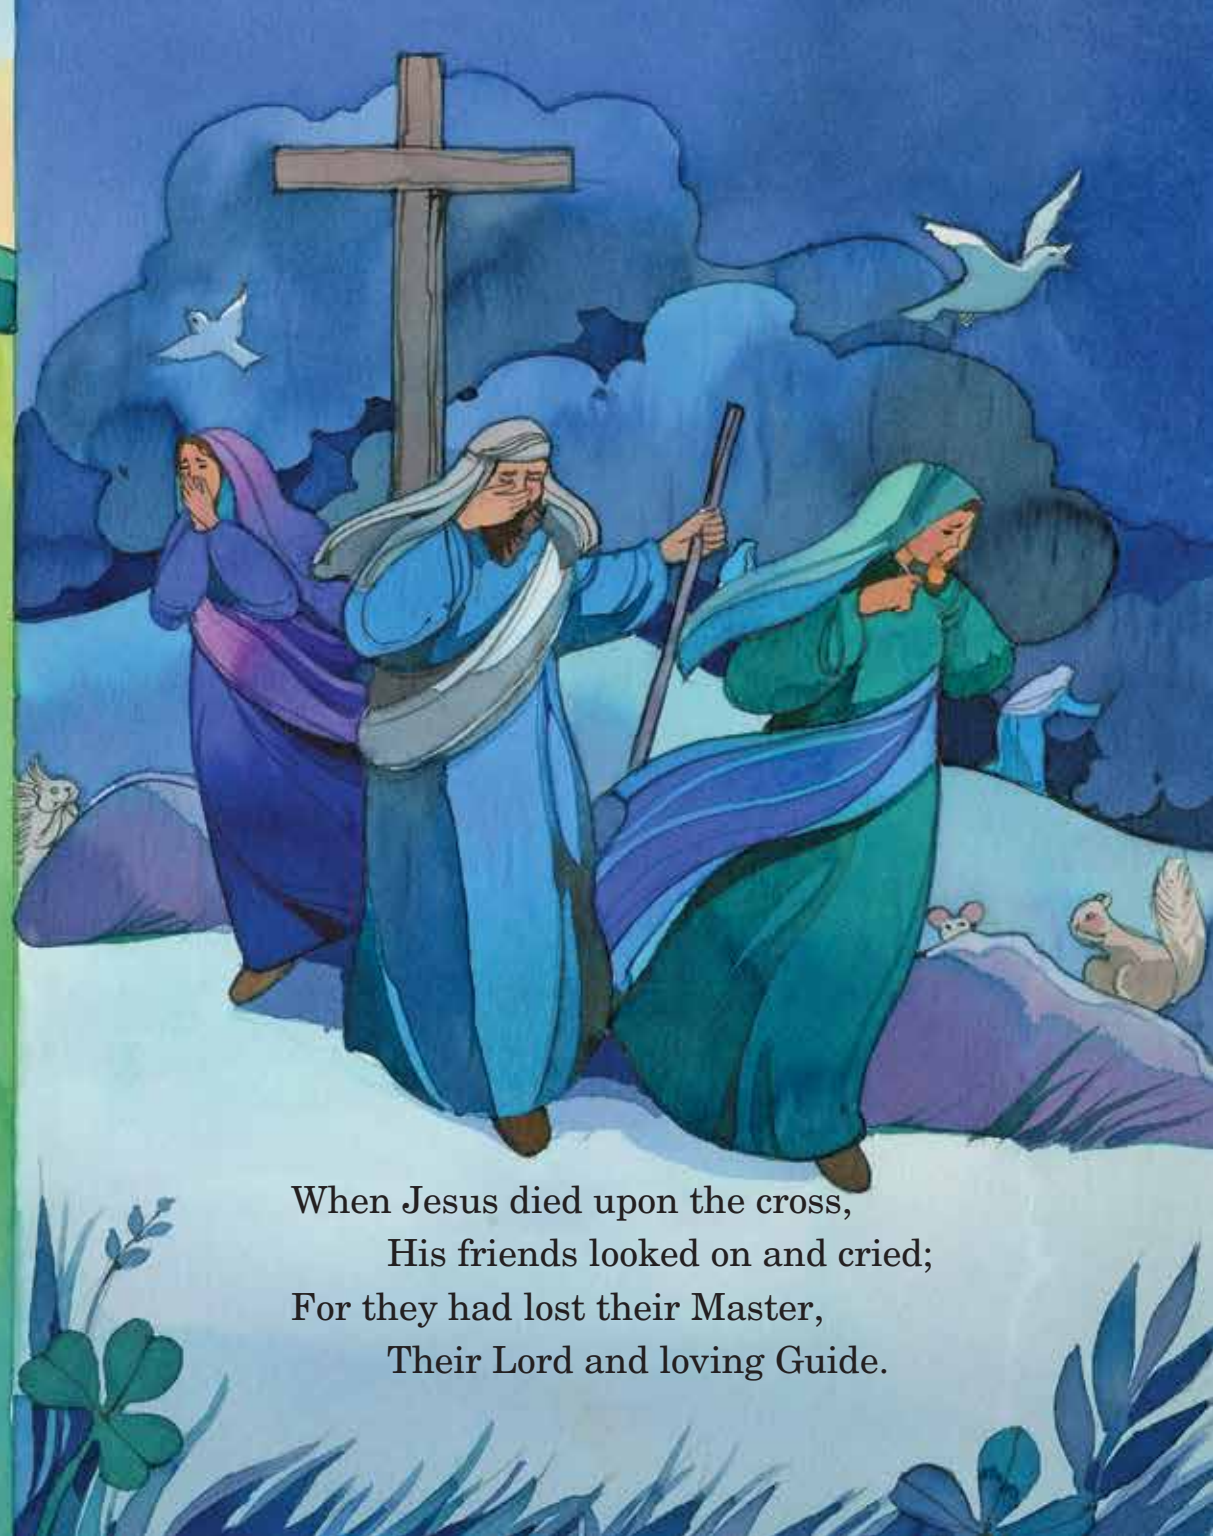

It's Easter morning! Sing a song!
Let's raise our voices loud and strong!
Jesus Christ, the all-forgiving
Lord and Savior—He is living!

This is My Happy Easter Book

Presented by

Date

When Jesus died upon the cross,
His friends looked on and cried;
For they had lost their Master,
Their Lord and loving Guide.

The happy time of Easter comes
Every year in spring
When, following the winter's chill,
We hear the robins sing.

Now everywhere we look it seems
That fresh, new life is seen—
From budding trees to crawly worms,
And many sprouts of green.