REVIEWS

“... a collection of astonishingly beautiful songs shaped around the poetry of Robert Louis Stevenson's iconic book, A Child's Garden of Verses. With exquisite sensitivity to the rich language of these gentle, pastoral visions of childhood, Jacobs uses melodic nuance to capture the boundlessness of a child's imagination and, for adult ears, a deep and wistful resonance...” Lynne Hefley - Parents' Choice

“...absolutely beautiful! It's a perfect blend of soothing music and inspirational poetry...good for the soul.”
Sweeps4Bloggers

“Charming songs from classic poems...gifted singers and musicians...” GRAND Magazine

“The perfect gift to give for a mother to be ... beautiful acoustic and vocals blend perfectly with lovely poetry ... an especially wonderful way to share music with your infant.”
Tot Trends Weekly

“...a pure lyrical and melodious gem... Jacobs' melodies...fit like a well-tailored glove and embrace everything from waltz-time and sea chantey, to jig and nocturne.”

Paula Slade - National Children's Entertainment

“Ted Jacobs has so marvelously paired his own melodies with these poems, it's hard to believe he didn't write them both. His amazing team of vocalists and musicians have truly created some delicious “ear candy” for families to enjoy!”

“...a beautiful reflection of the world of a child! ...encourages children to reflect, dream, and nurture their imaginations! The songs allow listeners to be taken to a place of happiness, peace, beauty, and love! ...the perfect match for the poetry and provide a way for them to be enjoyed by all!” Take It From Me

“This CD is said to evoke imagination and spark creativity that is so often lost with today's generation of children, and I couldn't agree more. This album has a way of making you feel carefree...” - Muse Reviews
