HISTORY

Age of Revolution I

Comprehensive spines, which provide thorough narrative coverage of the entire period:

- Story of the Thirteen Colonies* and Story of the Great Republic*, by H.A. Guerber Gr. 3-7
- This Country of Ours* and Island Story*, by H.E. Marshall Gr. 3-8
- Story of Liberty* and Sweet Land of Liberty*, by Charles Coffin Gr. 6-12

The last chapter or two of Story of Liberty are cited in this guide; the other chapters were cited in preceding guides. It is not necessary to purchase the book if using it for just these two chapters, though it has powerful things to say about the preceding period. The sequel, Sweet Land of Liberty, is not as important to read, as it focuses more on the narrative coverage that is available through other sources.

- Basic History of the United States: Volume I and II*, by Clarence Carson Gr. 9-12

This contains important ideas, but is a challenging read for all but advanced students.

General resources, which either 1) cover world history by making key points about multiple periods or by offering a brief summary of each, or 2) discuss selected events of significance in the period:

- Light and the Glory for Children* and From Sea to Shining Sea for Children* Gr. 1-5
by Peter Marshall & David Manuel

Some enjoy this book's attempt to see God's hand in history; others do not.

- Story of the World: Volume 3*, by Susan Wise Bauer Gr. 3-6
- Trial and Triumph: Stories from Church History*, by Richard Hannula Gr. 5-12
- Light and the Glory* and From Sea to Shining Sea* Gr. 6-12
by Peter Marshall & David Manuel

Some enjoy this book's attempt to see God's hand in history; others do not.

- How Should We Then Live?* by Francis Schaeffer [book or video format] Gr. 9-12

One of the most important resources you will ever use! Highly significant and highly recommended! It will also thus be cited throughout the remainder of the TruthQuest History series. The video series is in many church libraries.
