3. Learn how to form Spanish adverbs.
4. Point things out by using demonstrative adjectives.
5. Reinforce your knowledge of expressions with tener and ir by reviewing LIFE PAC 6.

I. REFLEXIVE VERBS

Paula and Marta are talking about their daily routine. Listen to their conversation. (CD Track # _____)

Paula: Hola, Marta. ¿Qué tal?

Marta: Me siento muy cansada hoy.

Paula: ¿Por qué te sientes cansada?

Marta: Me acosté muy tarde anoche.

Paula: ¿A qué hora te acuestas generalmente?

Marta: Generalmente me acuesto a las diez y media, y me duermo a las once.

Paula: ¿Y a qué hora te despiertas?

Marta: Me despierto a las seis y media, y me levanto a las siete menos veinte.

Paula: ¿Te duchas por la mañana o por la noche?

Marta: Me ducho por la noche porque no tengo tiempo por la mañana. Después de levantarme, me lavo la cara, me cepillo los dientes, me visto y me peino.

Paula: ¿Te maquillas?

Marta: Sí, me maquillo todos los días.

Paula: ¿A qué hora te vas a la escuela?

Marta: Generalmente me voy a la escuela a las ocho menos cuarto. ¿Y tú?

Paula: Me despierto a las seis porque necesito irme a la escuela a las siete y cuarto.

Marta: ¡Es muy temprano!

Paula: Sí, pero casi nunca me siento cansada porque me acuesto temprano también.

Translation:

- Paula: Hi, Marta. How's it going?
Marta: I feel really tired today.
Paula: Why do you feel tired?
Marta: I went to bed really late last night.
Paula: What time do you usually go to bed?
Marta: I usually go to bed at 10:30, and I fall asleep at 11:00.
Paula: And what time do you wake up?
Marta: I wake up at 6:30, and I get up at 6:40.
Paula: Do you take a shower in the morning or at night?
Marta: I shower at night because I don't have time in the morning. After getting up, I wash my face, I brush my teeth, I get dressed, and I comb my hair.
Paula: Do you put on makeup?
Marta: Yes, I put on makeup everyday.
Paula: What time do you leave for school?
Marta: I usually leave for school at 7:45. And you?
Paula: I wake up at 6:00 because I need to leave for school at 7:15.
Marta: That's really early!
Paula: Yes, but I almost never feel tired because I go to bed early too.

Reflexive Verbs

You will notice that the words me and te are used many times in the conversation between Paula and Marta and that me is used with the yo form of verbs while te is used with the tú form. Me and te are reflexive pronouns. If a Spanish verb is reflexive, reflexive pronouns must be used with it. Reflexive verbs are used to indicate that the person who does the action is also the person who receives the action; the action “reflects” back on the subject of the sentence. In English the reflexive pronouns myself, yourself, himself, ourselves, etc. are often used to express this. When the action is received by a different person or by an object, the verb is not reflexive. Study these examples:

Marta lava el coche. = Marta washes the car. The verb isn’t reflexive because while Marta does the action, the car receives that action.

Marta se lava. = Marta washes (herself). Marta is washing herself; she is both doing the action and receiving it. Therefore, a reflexive verb is needed.

Clara pone los anteojos en la mesa. = Clara puts the glasses on the table.

The verb isn’t reflexive because Clara is doing the action but isn’t receiving it.

Clara se pone los anteojos. = Clara puts on the glasses. The verb is reflexive, as Clara is doing the action to herself. She both does and receives the action.

When you learn a new verb, if se is attached to the end of the infinitive, it’s a reflexive verb.

ponerse

vestirse

peinarse

All reflexive verbs use these reflexive pronouns:

yo	me	nosotros	nos
tú	te	vosotros	os
Ud./él/ella	se	Uds./ellos/ellas	se

For the simple present tense, the reflexive pronoun is placed directly before the verb. Consider the example of lavarse (to wash oneself).

yo	me lavo	nosotros	nos lavamos
tú	te lavas	vosotros	os laváis
Ud./él/ella	se lava	Uds./ellos/ellas	se lavan

If an infinitive is used, the reflexive pronoun is placed either directly before the conjugated verb or is attached to the infinitive.

Me voy a lavar. or Voy a lavarme. = I’m going to wash (myself).

Because gustar is a special verb that is conjugated differently, reflexive pronouns used with it must be attached to the infinitive.

No me gusta despertarme temprano. = I don't like to wake up early. (The pronoun me must be attached to despertar; otherwise you would have No me me gusta despertar temprano.)

With reflexive verbs, the definite or indefinite article is used instead of a possessive adjective for parts of the body and for clothing.

Me lavo la cara. (I wash my face.) Not Me lavo mi cara.

Te cepillas los dientes. (You brush your teeth.) Not Te cepillas tus dientes.

Ana se quita las botas. (Ana takes off her boots.) Not Ana se quita sus botas.

The reason for this is because with reflexive verbs, it's already obvious that the person is washing his or her own face, brushing his or her own teeth, and taking off his or her own boots. To use the possessive adjectives would be redundant.

Some verbs change their meaning when they become reflexive. Here are some common examples:

dormir (to sleep)	Duermo ocho horas cada noche. (I sleep eight hours each night.)
dormirse (to fall asleep, to go to sleep)	Me duermo a las once. (I fall asleep at 11:00.)
ir (to go)	Voy a la escuela todos los días. (I go to school everyday.)
irse (to leave, to go away)	Me voy a la escuela a las ocho. (I leave for school at 8:00.)
poner (to put, to place, to set)	Voy a poner el libro en la mesa. (I'm going to put the book on the table.)
ponerse (to put on)	Voy a ponerme una chaqueta. (I'm going to put on a jacket.)

Here are some common reflexive verbs; notice that many of them are stem-changing. Listen and repeat. (CD Track # _____)

acostarse (o-ue)	to go to bed
afeitarse	to shave
bañarse	to bathe, to take a bath
caerse	to fall down
cambiarse de (ropa)	to change (clothes)
cepillarse (el pelo/los dientes)	to brush (one's hair/teeth)
cortarse el pelo	to get a haircut; to cut one's hair
despertarse (e-ie)	to wake up
desvestirse (e-i)	to undress, to get undressed
divertirse (e-ie)	to have fun, to have a good time, to enjoy oneself
dormirse (o-ue)	to fall asleep, to go to sleep
 ducharse	to shower, to take a shower
irse	to leave, to go away
lavarse	to wash (oneself)

levantarse	to get up
maquillarse	to put on makeup
mirarse	to look at oneself
*peinarse	to comb one's hair ponerse	to put on
ponerse a dieta	to go on a diet
prepararse	to get ready, to prepare oneself
quedarse (en casa)	to stay (at home)
quitarse	to take off
referirse (e-ie)	to refer
secarse	to dry (oneself)
*sentarse (e-ie)	to sit, to sit down
*sentirse (e-ie)	to feel
*verse (cansado, enfermo, etc.)	to look (tired, sick, etc.)
vestirse (e-i)	to dress, to get dressed

* Note the following explanations:

Peinarse (to comb one's hair) is not used with el pelo. To say I comb my hair, simply use Me peino (Not Me peino el pelo).

The yo form of sentarse (to sit, to sit down) and of sentirse (to feel) are the same: me siento. However, the rest of the sentence or the context of the conversation will make the meaning clear.

Me siento al lado de Juan.

I sit next to Juan.

Me siento muy nervioso.

I feel very nervous.

The adjectives used with sentirse (to feel) and verse (to look) must agree with the person or persons they modify. Remember that bien and mal are adverbs and therefore do not change.

Nos sentimos bien.

We feel good/fine.

Nos sentimos emocionados.

We feel excited.

Silvia se ve muy bonita.

Silvia looks very pretty.

Ellos se ven enojados.

They look angry.

Listen and repeat the conjugations of the following reflexive verbs. (CD Track # _____)

bañarse	yo	me baño	nosotros	nos bañamos
	tú	te bañas	vosotros	os bañáis
	Ud./él/ella	se baña	Uds./ellos/ellas	se bañan
acostarse (o-ue)	yo	me acuesto	nosotros	nos acostamos
	tú	te acuestas	vosotros	os acostáis
	Ud./él/ella	se acuesta	Uds./ellos/ellas	se acuestan
ponerse	yo	me pongo	nosotros	nos ponemos
	tú	te pones	vosotros	os ponéis
	Ud./él/ella	se pone	Uds./ellos/ellas	se ponen

divertirse (e-ie)	yo	me divierto	nosotros	nos divertimos
	tú	te diviertes	vosotros	os divertís
	Ud./él/ella	se divierte	Uds./ellos/ellas	se divierten
sentirse (e-ie)	yo	me siento	nosotros	nos sentimos
	tú	te sientes	vosotros	os sentís
	Ud./él/ella	se siente	Uds./ellos/ellas	se sienten

Fill in the conjugations of these reflexive verbs. Remember that you must have two words in each blank: a reflexive pronoun and a verb form.
