

People were made to live together in harmony.

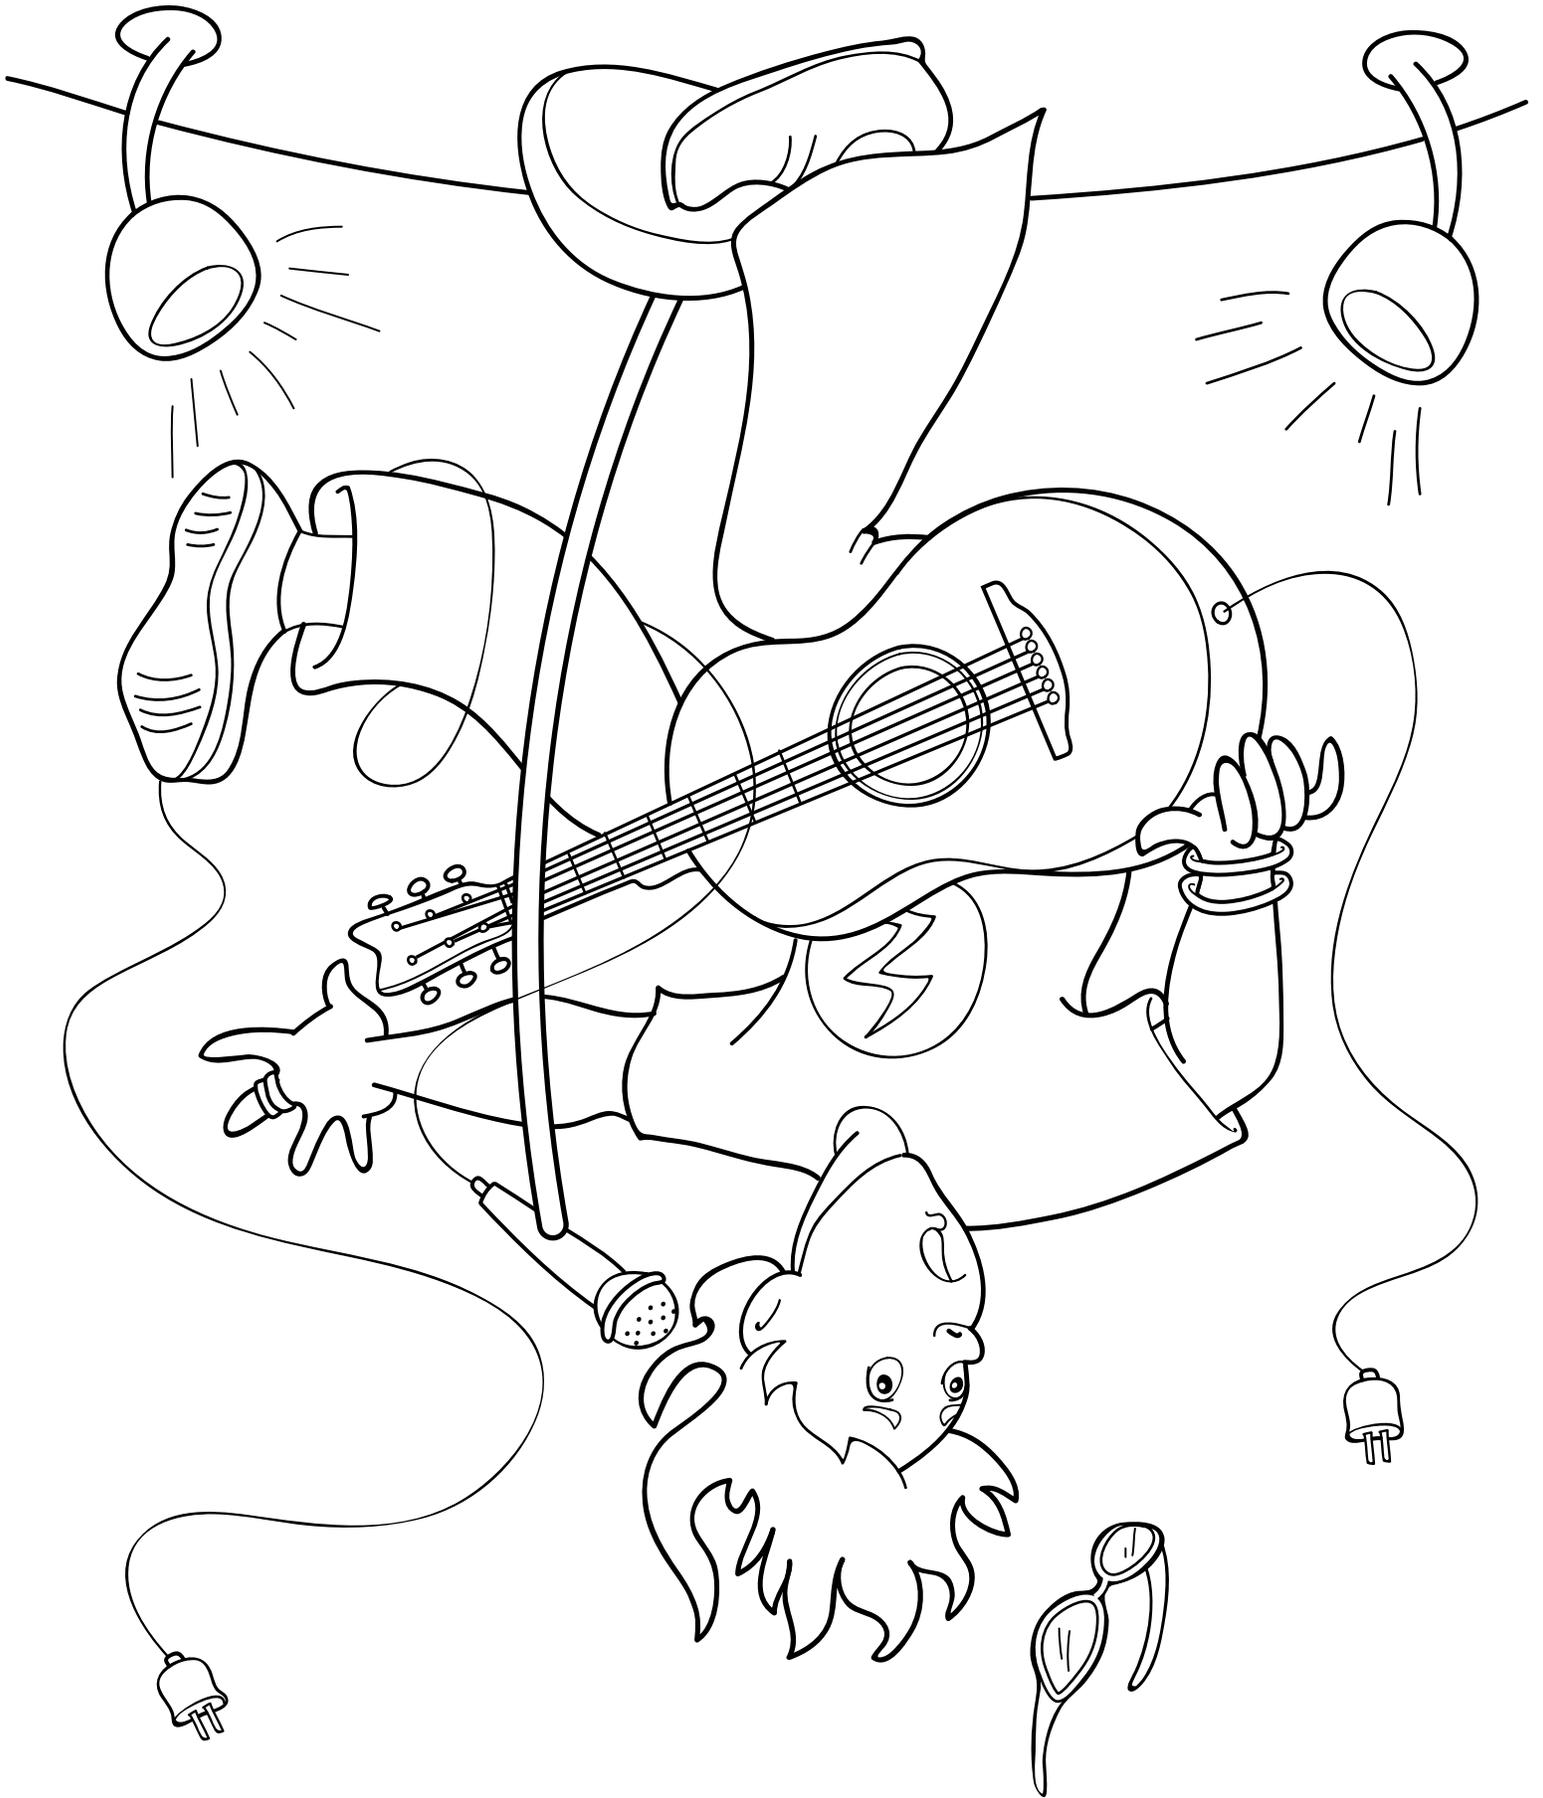

God brought all the animals and the birds to Adam so that he could name them.

Every part of an engine must work together perfectly for a racing team to achieve victory.

Jesus Washes the Feet of the Disciples

Everything the world teaches us about success and greatness is upside down.

We could all use a little help now and then.