Introduction

Bible Treasures: New Testament is a children's Bible storybook written specifically for second graders, though children of many ages will enjoy the familiar stories and accompanying pictures. As the title implies, this book focuses on stories found within the books of Matthew through Revelation. Characters such as Jesus Christ, Peter, Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Paul, Timothy, and others are brought to life within these pages.

Bible Treasures is based on a thirty-six week school year. Each week consists of four Bible lessons and one review lesson. While this may seem like a lot of stories for young students, this format is intended to provide the children with a comprehensive, chronological overview of the Bible books of the New Testament. The stories naturally follow one another and are short enough that they can easily be reread as often as your child desires and your time allows.

Each weekly lesson also includes questions about the Bible story, one thought question, a weekly Bible memory verse, and a question from First Catechism (copyright © 2003, Great Commission Publications). The story questions are easily answered in a few words. The thought questions are meant to promote thought and discussion between you and your child and may be done orally. The memory verses and catechism questions are meant to be memorized by your child in order to help hide God's Word and truth in his or her heart. Teachers and parents are encouraged to review the weekly Bible verse and appropriate catechism question each day to help their child memorize them more quickly.

A review lesson is provided at the end of each week. This lesson reviews the weekly Bible verse and catechism questions from the week. This review will also, as the weeks pass by, begin including catechism questions from previous lessons and from Bible Treasures: Genesis through Ruth and Bible Treasures: 1 Samuel through Malachi. An activity, meant to help students review some of the week's Bible lessons, is also provided in the review lesson at the end of each week.

An answer key is provided at the end of this book. The answers correspond to the questions listed at the end of each Bible story, the weekly review questions, and activity questions, if applicable. No answers are provided for the thought questions, as they are meant merely to help guide discussion.

Unit 1

The Birth of John

LESSON 1

The New Testament

Isaiah 9:6

If you will open your Bible a little way past the middle, you will find the end of the Old Testament. This is the end of the first part of the Bible, in which we learned about God, His creation, and the men and women He chose. In the Old Testament, we learned about Abraham and his family; we also learned about the judges, the kings, and the prophets.

Next find the last page of the end of the first part of the Bible; on the very next page, you will find the words, "The New Testament." This is the start of the second part of the Bible, in which we will learn about Jesus Christ, God's Son; He is the Savior of God's chosen people.

Between the Old and New Testaments there was a long time when nothing was added to the Bible; 400 years passed before the New Testament began. The Bible does not tell us what happened during those 400 years, but we can find out some things by reading history books about that time.

During those 400 years, the Jewish people were living in the land of Palestine, waiting. The people had been waiting since the time of the prophet Isaiah, 700 years earlier. They had been waiting since the time of their forefather Abraham, who had lived 1,900 years before.

All this time, the Jewish people were waiting and longing for a child, whom God had promised to send to save His people. God first gave this promise to Eve in the garden of Eden when He said that one day one of her offspring would crush Satan's head because Satan had brought sin and death into the world by tempting Eve to disobey God. This promised child would bring everlasting life to God's people.

Many years later, God promised Abraham that this child would be one of his many descendants and that all the nations of the world would be blessed by Him. Ever since then, the Jewish people had been watching for His coming.

Then the great prophet Isaiah prophesied the child's coming when he said, "For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6).

The prophet Micah then prophesied that the child would be born in the town of Bethlehem. God also made many other promises about the child He would send. This child would be Jesus, God's own Son sent to earth as a baby to save God's people from their sins. The New Testament tells the story of Jesus and all the things He taught God's people.

The story begins after 400 years of silence, when the time for God's promised Son had finally arrived.

LESSON 2

The Priest Who Could Not Speak

Luke 1:5-25

In the land of Israel, a good old priest named Zacharias lived. His wife was named Elizabeth. Zacharias and Elizabeth were both godly people, worshiping God as He commanded. This priest and his wife had one great sorrow: they had no children. They were both now so old that they no longer expected they would ever have children.

However, Zacharias still had work to do as a priest. When all the people came to the temple to pray, it was sometimes Zacharias' job to go into the temple and burn the sweet smelling incense on the altar.

One day, when Zacharias was burning the incense, an angel appeared on the right side of the altar. Zacharias was afraid, but the angel spoke kindly to him. He said, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John" (Luke 1:13). Many people would be glad at John's birth, for he would be the man who made people ready for the coming of God's promised Son.

Zacharias was amazed at what the angel said. He asked the angel how he would know that the angel was telling the truth.

Then the angel said, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and was sent to speak to you and bring you these glad tidings. But behold, you will be mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their own time" (Luke 1:19-20). Mute means "unable to speak."

While the angel was speaking to Zacharias, the people outside the temple were growing worried. They did not know what was taking the priest so long, and they wondered if something had happened to him.

Finally, Zacharias came outside, and the people asked him what had happened. But Zacharias was unable to say a word and could not tell the people what had happened. The people were amazed and understood that Zacharias had seen a vision, but they did not know what Zacharias had heard.

After his work at the temple was done, Zacharias went home to his wife, Elizabeth. Sure enough, the angel's words came true, and Elizabeth knew that she was going to have a baby. Elizabeth was very happy and knew that her baby would be a special gift from the Lord.

- What was Zacharias' job? _____
- The angel _____ appeared to Zacharias and told him he would have a son that he should name _____.

LESSON 3

The Angel’s Message

Luke 1:26–56

In the city of Nazareth lived a young woman who was Elizabeth’s cousin. Her name was Mary, and although she was not yet married, she soon would be because she was engaged to a good man named Joseph.

One day, when Mary was alone, the angel Gabriel appeared to her with a joyful message. Mary had found favor with God and was called blessed among women. God was going to give Mary the greatest honor that any woman had ever had. God would send Mary a son, a boy who would also be the Son of God Himself. This was the child God had promised to Eve, to Abraham, and all the way to Isaiah. This was the child for whom all Israel had been waiting, the child who would save God’s people from their sins.

Mary asked the angel how she could have a child when she was not married. Gabriel explained that Mary’s son would not have an earthly father. Instead, He would be the Son of God. Because He was the Son of Mary as well as the Son of God, this baby would be both God and man.

It sounded impossible, but Gabriel told Mary, “With God nothing will be impossible” (Luke 1:37).

So Mary humbly answered, “Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word” (Luke 1:38).

Before Gabriel left, he told Mary that her cousin Elizabeth was also going to have a baby. When Gabriel did leave, Mary was so full of joy and wonder that she went immediately to visit her cousin Elizabeth.

Mary made the journey quickly. When she arrived, she found Elizabeth and greeted her. As soon as Elizabeth heard Mary’s voice, the baby in her womb leaped. Then Elizabeth greeted Mary saying, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!” (Luke 1:42). Elizabeth was honored that the mother of her Lord would come to visit her.

Then Mary poured out her heart in praise to God. She said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior ... holy is His name. And His mercy is on those who fear Him ... He has helped His servant Israel, in remembrance of His mercy, as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed forever” (Luke 1:46–55).

Mary and Elizabeth were so joyful over what the Lord had done for them. Mary stayed with Elizabeth for three months. After that long visit, she went back home to prepare to have her baby.

Questions

1. Mary lived in what city? _____
2. To whom was Mary engaged? _____

LESSON 4

The Birth of John

Luke 1:57–80

Not long after all these things, it was time for Elizabeth’s baby to be born. Just as the angel had promised Zacharias, the baby was a boy. Zacharias and Elizabeth were very happy, and all their friends and neighbors rejoiced with them.

When the boy was eight days old, all of Zacharias and Elizabeth’s friends came together for a celebration. According to Jewish tradition, this was the day that the baby was given a name.

All the friends and relatives thought it would be nice to name the baby boy after his father and call him Zacharias. Elizabeth, however, told all her friends no. She told them firmly that the baby was to be named John. Her friends were confused. No one in the family was named John, and they saw no reason to name this baby John.

Ever since Zacharias had met the angel in the temple, he had not been able to speak. Yet he had communicated to Elizabeth that the baby should be named John. Now Zacharias could still not speak, but the friends turned to him and asked what the baby’s name should be.

Zacharias asked for something to write on. They gave him a writing tablet, and Zacharias wrote, “His name is John” (Luke 1:63). As soon as he wrote those words, Zacharias was able to speak again. He began to praise God. When all the friends and neighbors heard Zacharias begin to speak, they became afraid and amazed.

The story of Zacharias and the birth of his son John was discussed throughout the entire land. Everyone who heard it was amazed and wondered what kind of man John would grow up to be.

Then Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit and began to prophesy. He blessed God for His mercy and deliverance. Then he turned to his son and said, “And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Highest; for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways, to give knowledge of salvation to His people by the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God, with which the Day-spring from on high has visited us; to give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace” (Luke 1:76–79).

The hand of the Lord was with John as he grew up. He grew to become a man of strong and noble spirit. When he was old enough, he went out to live in the desert. John stayed there in the desert until it was time to do the work God had called him to do: prepare the way for Jesus, the Son of God.

Unit 2

The Birth of Jesus

LESSON 6

Joseph's Dream

Matthew 1:18–25

While Zacharias and Elizabeth were celebrating the birth of their son, Mary had returned home. We must remember that Mary was engaged to Joseph, a man of Nazareth.

Joseph was a good man who worked as a carpenter. However, he had not seen the angel who appeared to Mary. Mary had told Joseph what the angel Gabriel had said. Joseph knew that Mary was going to have a baby, but he also knew she was not yet married. He did not understand everything Mary was telling him.

He was very sad to do it, but Joseph began to think it might be better for him not to marry Mary at all.

Joseph spent much time thinking about all these things and wondering what he should do. Then one night, he had a remarkable dream.

In Joseph's dream, an angel appeared. The angel told Joseph that he should not be afraid to take Mary as his wife. The angel explained that everything Mary had told Joseph was true. Mary would have a son, and her baby would also be the Son of God.

Then the angel told Joseph that when the baby was born, Joseph and Mary were to name the baby Jesus. The name Jesus means "Savior." Mary's baby boy would be the Son of God, and He would save God's people from their sins.

When Joseph woke up, he did not forget his dream. He obeyed God and took Mary as his wife.

Even though Jesus would be the Son of God, Joseph would help take care of Him and Mary while He was on earth. All these things were done just as God had promised His people.

"So all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying: 'Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel,' which is translated, 'God with us,'" (Matthew 1:22–23).

LESSON 7

Jesus' Birth in Bethlehem

Luke 2:1-7

In those days, the Roman emperor, Caesar Augustus, ruled over much of the world. He decided to make a law that all the people in his empire should pay a tax to the Roman government. He ordered all the people to go to the towns they were originally from and to stay there until they had paid the tax.

Joseph was a descendant of David, who had lived in the town of Bethlehem. So Joseph and Mary, who was now his wife, traveled together from Nazareth to Bethlehem from where Joseph's family came. The journey was not easy, for it was almost time for Mary to have her baby. Then, when they arrived in Bethlehem, they found an even bigger problem.

Bethlehem was not a very big town. Many people were forced to come to Bethlehem because of the emperor's law. All the people who came to be taxed needed a place to stay. By the time Joseph and Mary arrived in Bethlehem, they could not find any place to stay for the night. Every house was full. They knocked on inn doors, but there was no room for them anywhere.

Finally, someone said that if they were willing, he would let Mary and Joseph stay in his stable with his animals. Because there was nowhere else to go, Joseph and Mary agreed. They spent the night in the stable with the animals. That very night, the time came for Mary to give birth to her baby.

Jesus, the Son of God, was born in a lowly stable in the small town of Bethlehem. This little baby who was born in such lowly conditions was sent by God to save His people from their sins.

Mary and Joseph were very happy. Then Mary wrapped her firstborn Son in swaddling cloths and laid Him in a manger, which was normally used to feed the animals. Swaddling cloths are pieces of material tied together by bandage-like strips.

This was a glorious night. The Son of God, the promised Savior, had finally come to earth just as God had promised.

Questions

- 1. Mary and Joseph had to go to Bethlehem to pay a _____.
- 2. Mary and Joseph had to spend the night in a stable because there was no _____ in the _____.
- 3. Where did Mary lay Jesus after wrapping Him in swaddling cloths? _____.

LESSON 8

The Shepherds, Simeon, and Anna

Luke 2:8–38

When a prince is born on earth, all the bells throughout the kingdom are rung for joy. Trumpeters ride in every direction to proclaim the royal birth. So too, when God's Son was born on earth, heralds came to announce His coming. Instead of men riding on horses, these heralds were shining angels.

On the night Jesus was born, a group of shepherds were in the fields near Bethlehem keeping watch over their sheep. Suddenly, the glory of the Lord shone around them. A glorious light from heaven filled the sky. An angel of the Lord came near, and the shepherds were terrified.

Yet the angel spoke to them and said, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger" (Luke 2:10–12). Then the whole sky filled with angels. A multitude of the heavenly host praised God saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!" (Luke 2:14).

The shepherds were amazed. As soon as the angels disappeared, the shepherds went straight to Bethlehem to see the wondrous thing the Lord had done. Just as the angel had said, the shepherds found the baby lying in a manger. They knew this child was the promised Savior, and they rejoiced and worshiped Him. As they returned to their sheep, the shepherds praised God and glorified His name. They told everyone they met what they had heard and seen that night.

Soon Mary's son was eight days old, and it was time to name Him. Joseph remembered what the angel in his dream told him, and named the baby Jesus.

Also at the time, it was traditional for Jews to bring their firstborn sons to the temple to be presented to the Lord when they were a month old. So Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple in Jerusalem.

An old man named Simeon lived near the temple. He was a godly man who was waiting patiently for the promised Savior. God had spoken to Simeon and told him he would see the promised child before he died.

Just as Mary and Joseph were bringing Jesus to the temple, God's Spirit led Simeon there, as well. The old man knew immediately that the baby he saw was the promised Savior. He took the baby in his arms and said, "Lord, now You are letting Your servant depart in peace, according to Your word; for my eyes have seen Your salvation" (Luke 2:29–30).

Joseph and Mary marveled at what Simeon had to say. Then Simeon blessed them and spoke directly to Mary. He told her that her son was destined for many great and wonderful things. Yet he also said that "a sword will pierce through your own soul" (Luke 2:35). Simeon was speaking of how Jesus would do many great things in Israel, but he was also foreshadowing Jesus' death on the cross, and how it would hurt Mary to watch her son die.

Then an old woman named Anna came in to where Joseph and Mary and Jesus were. She was a very old widow who lived in the temple. Anna spent most of her time praying and worshiping God. She too saw the baby and knew He was God's promised Savior. She praised God and told all the people in Jerusalem who had been waiting for God's Savior the good news of Jesus' coming.

Questions

- The angels said, "_____ to God in the _____ and on _____ peace, goodwill toward _____."

LESSON 9

A Star in the East

Matthew 2:1–12

Although Jesus was no longer a newborn, Mary and Joseph were still living in Bethlehem. The Bible does not tell us why they remained in Bethlehem, but it does tell us of an amazing thing that happened while Mary, Joseph, and Jesus were still living in Bethlehem.

In ancient days, some of the eastern lands had wise men who studied the stars at night. They were able to learn many things through their studies. Some of these wise men were living far to the east of the land of the Jews when Jesus was born. These wise men saw a new, unusually bright, star appear in the sky. Somehow these men knew that this star meant that a baby had been born. They also knew the baby was very special, a king even. They thought the baby was so special that they traveled all the way to Jerusalem to find Him.

The wise men came into Jerusalem seeking the new baby. They came to the king, Herod, and asked, “Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him” (Matthew 2:2).

King Herod was very disturbed by this news. He did not want anyone else to become king. He gathered the chief priests and scribes together and asked them where the Christ Child was supposed to be born.

The priests and scribes knew the answer, for they had studied the Scriptures. They told King Herod that the prophet Micah had prophesied that the promised Christ would be born in Bethlehem of Judea.

Herod knew that this child was spoken of in Scripture, yet he was afraid that this new baby would grow up and become king instead of him. He secretly called the wise men and told them to search Bethlehem very carefully until they found the child. Then Herod asked the wise men to come back and tell him where the child was after they had found Him. He said this because he wanted to kill Jesus, but he told the wise men he simply wanted to worship the new King, too.

The wise men went on their way. The star continued moving before them until it came to rest over the house where Joseph, Mary, and Jesus were living. The wise men went inside and found Mary and the child, Jesus. Then they fell down and worshiped Jesus. They had brought gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to give to Jesus.

After worshiping Jesus and giving Him gifts, the wise men prepared to leave. However, they did not go back to King Herod. The Lord warned them in a dream not to tell the king where Jesus was living. Instead, the wise men took a different route back to the East.
