

Suggested Supply List

- Mini or wall-mounted white board
- Dry erase markers and eraser
- Pencils, ruler

Science & History

- Household items for science (Check the God's Protected World Teacher's Manual for a complete list of items before you begin teaching. Your list will vary based on the experiments you choose to conduct with your students. Choose 1-2 for each lesson.)
- Tri-fold display board or ample wall space for Timeline cards

Traditional Spelling

- Metal, wooden, or plastic lowercase and uppercase letter beads
- Stringing yarn, leather strips, or lanyard
- Sentence strips (purchase online or at a teacher's store)
- Colored pencils
- Sidewalk chalk or clay

Creating Art

- 8.5" x 11" white card stock and white paper
- 11" x 17" white card stock or paint-grade paper and black paper
- Butcher paper
- Red, yellow, blue, brown, black, white, and glow-in-the-dark paint (acrylic or tempera)
- Red, yellow, brown, black, and white chalk
- Colored pencils and watercolor paints (various colors)
- Construction paper
- Glue, glue stick, and decoupage glue
- Hole puncher
- Mixing tray and paintbrushes
- Paper plate
- Piece of plastic fruit
- Scissors
- Styrofoam or papier-mache eggs
- Tissue paper (multiple colors)
- Vase
- White or light yellow crayons
- Wooden skewers
- Yarn