

The Baby King

The story of Jesus' birth,
Luke 2:1–20, for children

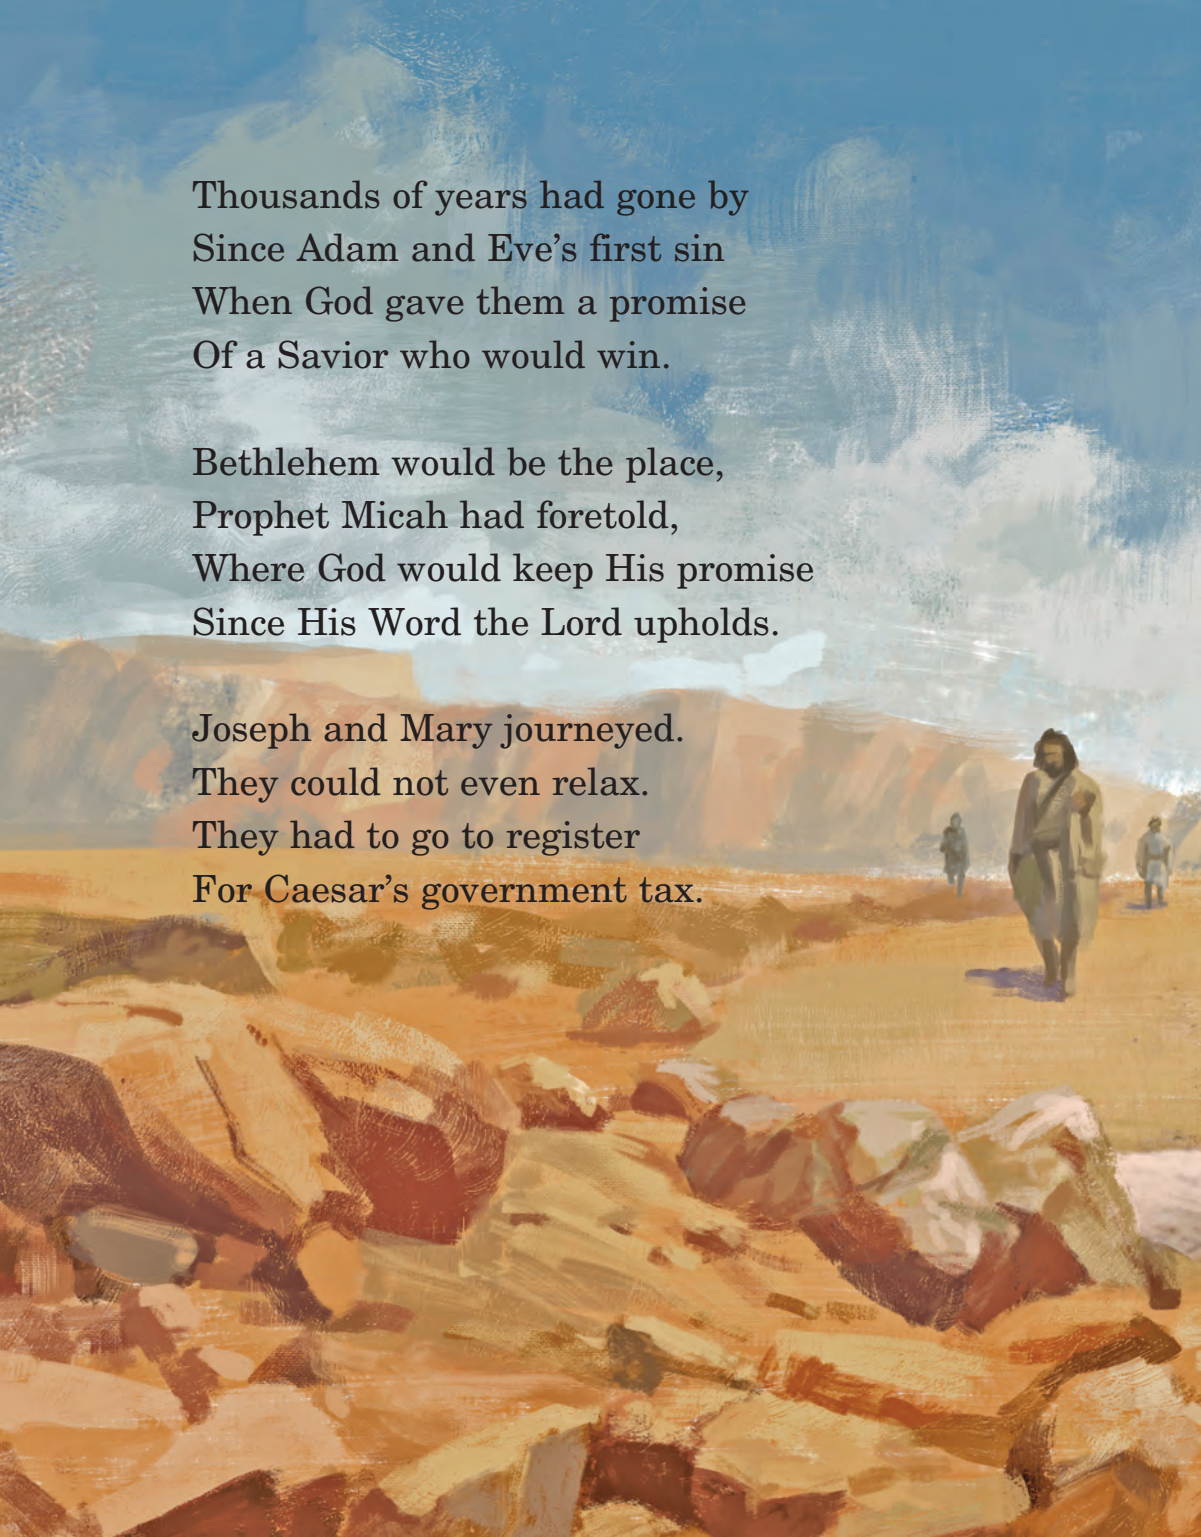

Written by Gregory Hyatt

Illustrated by Joseph Qiu

Thousands of years had gone by
Since Adam and Eve's first sin
When God gave them a promise
Of a Savior who would win.

Bethlehem would be the place,
Prophet Micah had foretold,
Where God would keep His promise
Since His Word the Lord upholds.

Joseph and Mary journeyed.
They could not even relax.
They had to go to register
For Caesar's government tax.

The angel then was joined
By many praising God
And telling of His peace
To all who on earth trod.

