Sight Words: have, of, do

Reading Skills: comprehension, reading aloud, story recall, matching

Handwriting: j, w, k; tracing words, copying words, review

Grammar: quotation marks, writing dialogue

Creative Expression: retelling stories, craft activities

Research: encyclopedia skills

Higher Order Thinking Skills: sequencing events, character evaluation, inference, categorization, verifying information

Materials Needed:

A Kit for Kim, craft supplies, Gray Sound/Picture Cards, Blue and Pink Letter Cards, index cards, encyclopedia books on pigs
Yellow Sight Word Cards: have, of, do

Optional: Visit a live stock show or farm.

Day 1

1. Read A Kit for Kim to your student, including the sounds listed on the New Sound page in the front of the reader and the sight words on page 9. (See A Kit from Kim on page 2).
2. Read the story to your student a second time. Give the book to him, and ask him to retell the story in his own words.
3. Find the activity sheet for this lesson on page 77 in the Student Activity Book. Ask your student to cut out the pictures and put them in the order they happened, using the book to check the correct order. (See page 77 Student Activity Book on page 6).
4. Ask your student to cut out the sentence strips found at the bottom of the pictures and match the sentence to the correct picture using the book as a guide. He may attempt to read the sentences to you, or you may read them to him.
5. Teach your student the correct formation of j, w, and k using page 79 in the Student Activity Book as a guide. Make the letters in the air first and then on unlined paper. Limit the practice to five formations of each letter on the unlined paper. As your student writes each letter, ask him to say the sound it makes. (See page 79 Student Activity Book on page 7).
