Have you read
The Tale of the One-Eared Rabbit?

I was sure all my acorns were in this tree, the puzzled
squirrel said to himself.

My soup was stolen!
My soup was stolen!
My soup was stolen!

My photo is in The Downtown Times
newspaper!

Did you ever do something silly and think, Why in the world did I do that?

Mandy skipped dinner.
Mandy skipped dinner.
Mandy skipped dinner.

The Case of the Lost Sock is the worst
movie I've ever seen.

*He'll never get away
with it*, the spy said to himself.

Brad ate a worm.
Brad ate a worm.
Brad ate a worm.

Words from Greek Mythology

Achilles was a strong warrior, but he had one weakness—his heel.

Do you have a weakness?

Achilles' Heel

Any object King Midas touched would turn into gold. He touched a chair and it turned to gold. He touched his bathtub and it turned to gold.

Have you ever met someone who seemed to have really good luck?

During the battle of Troy, Greek soldiers hid inside a huge wooden horse. The Trojans thought it was a gift, so they pulled the wooden horse inside their city walls. That night, the soldiers came out of the horse and took over the city.

Have you ever been surprised by something?

The Midas Touch

Trojan Horse

Zeus gave Pandora a box, and when Pandora opened it, all kinds of bad things escaped into the world. Things got out of control pretty quickly.

Have things ever gotten out of control for you?

Hercules was given twelve difficult tasks to complete—and he managed to do them all. It took an extreme effort.

Has anything ever taken you a lot of effort to complete?

Pandora's Box

Herculean Effort

According to Greek myths, the gods ate nectar and ambrosia. These two foods were supposed to be extremely delicious.

What do you think is the most delicious food in the world?

In Greek mythology, Titans were huge giants with incredible powers. One such Titan was Atlas, who could hold up the whole world.

Who is the strongest person you know?

Food of the Gods

Titan
