Fall of Jericho

Moses climbed a mountain and saw the Promised Land.
Then, on Joshua, son of Nun, he firmly placed his hands.
Moses gave authority to Joshua that day,
Trusting him to wisely lead the people, come what may.

As Moses' right-hand man, he was poised to lead the way.
He listened very carefully to all God had to say:
"Be strong and courageous. Step out in faith and go
To the land I promised you a long, long time ago."
