

PLANNING YOUR STORY 2025

GET INSPIRED!

- Refer to our contest Web Page for some examples of time travel books to read.

PLAN AND WRITE YOUR STORY

- Plot your story elements.
- Storyboard your time travel story on 4"x6" note cards to plan your book space.
- Arrange (and rearrange) the cards before you write your 1st draft.
- On practice paper, write a story draft. You may copy kit pages to practice on.
- Plan your illustrations to match each page or spread.
 - Follow rules on illustration layout.
- Check that you are following all rules and the rubric.
- Make changes on your practice papers.

TRANSFER YOUR WORK TO THE OFFICIAL KIT SHEETS

- Neatly write your story on the kit pages and draw your illustrations.
- Create your title and cover page LAST!
- We recommend copying/photographing your story to keep as a backup until receiving your print copy.

SUBMIT YOUR STORY FOR JUDGING

- Refer to rules page for submission requirements.

