Grammar Worksheet 1

Write the passages for A, B, and C as they are dictated to you. Spell and punctuate carefully; write neatly. Check your work and circle any mistakes. Spell correctly any words with which you had problems on the line designated "Problem Words." Follow the instructions for activities D and E.

Dictation A Leviticus 19: 15 – 16

Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the great, but judge your neighbor fairly. Do not go about spreading slander among your people. Do not do anything that endangers your neighbor's life. I am the Lord.

Problem Words: _____

Dictation B Leviticus 19: 17 – 18

Do not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your neighbor frankly so you will not share in his guilt. Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord.

Problem Words: _____

Dictation C From The Scarlet Pimpernel

Some little distance away to her left the lights from the coffee-room of "The Fisherman's Rest" glittered yellow in the gathering mist; from time to time it seemed to her aching nerves as if she could catch from thence the sound of merry-making and of jovial talk, or even that perpetual, senseless laugh of her husband's, which grated continually upon her sensitive ears.

Problem Words: _____

Activity D Provide punctuation and capitalization for the following passage.

with another heavy sigh marguerite blakeney turned her back upon the sea and cliffs and walked slowly back towards the fishermans rest. as she drew near, the sound of revelry of gay jovial laughter grew louder and more distinct. she could distinguish sir andrew ffloukes pleasant voice lord tonys boisterous guffaws her husbands occasional drawly sleepy comments

Activity E Write a paragraph explaining what relevance the above scripture dictations have with the story. Proofread your paragraph carefully.
