

Low B

30

When he finished there was thunderous applause. "Where did you learn to sing so well?" Elgar E. Elephant asked.

"Do tell us," purred Clara Schumann-Cat. It had been quite a while since she had heard music as grand as this.

Puccini Pooch cleared his throat and began. "I grew up visiting the Grand Opera House. My parents were friends of the stage manager and loved going to the opera. They sat backstage together many nights and listened. Their favorite composer was Giacomo Puccini. I was named after him. When I was just a little puppy, they began to teach me the words and music to every opera that they had heard."

- 1 Clap (or tap) Singing Lessons and count aloud evenly.
- 2 Point to the notes & rests and count aloud evenly.
- 3 Say the finger numbers aloud while playing them in the air.
- 4 Play and say the finger numbers.
- 6 Play and say the note names.
- 6 Play and sing the words.

Singing Lessons

31 15 (61)

Ev - 'ry day in this hall, on this stage, Mom and Dad taught them all page - by - page.
 First I learned just the notes on eas - i - ly. I could sing G - A - B B - A - G.

Teacher or Parent

Wisfully
RH one octave higher than written

1. Repeat entire accompaniment.

2.