Instructions

The list below shows the components to each Fix It! Grammar weekly exercise.

Although Mark It is listed before Fix It, the student may choose to Fix It first and then Mark It. This is acceptable because the Fix It! Grammar exercises are like a word puzzle. The goal is to complete the lists at the top of the student page for each passage.

Students should discuss their work with the teacher after working through each daily passage. However, older students may work with their teacher on a weekly basis. Students should actively be involved in comparing their work with the Teacher's Manual. The repetition of finding and fixing their own mistakes allows them to recognize and avoid those mistakes in the future.

Fix It! Grammar should be treated as a game. Keep it fun!

Learn It! On the first day of the new Week, read through the Learn It section. Each Learn It covers a concept that the student will practice in future passages. Instructions for marking and fixing passages are included in each Learn It.

Read It! Read the day's passage.
Look up the bolded vocabulary word in a dictionary and pick the definition that fits the context of the story. Maintain a list of vocabulary words and their definitions.
The vocabulary definitions are printed in the Teacher's Manual.

Mark It! Mark the passage using the guide at the top of the daily practice page.

Fix It! Correct the passage using the guide at the top of the daily practice page. The Teacher's Manual includes detailed explanations for grammar concepts and punctuation in each daily passage.

Rewrite It! After marking, correcting, and discussing the passage with the teacher, copy the corrected passage on the lines provided or into a separate notebook.

- Copy the corrected story, not the editing marks.
- Indent and use capital letters properly.
- Copy the corrected punctuation.

Appendix I Complete Story Familiarize yourself with the story that you will be editing by reading the complete story found in Appendix I.

Appendix II Collection Pages Look for strong verbs, quality adjectives, and -ly adverbs in this book and write them on the collection pages in Appendix II.

Appendix III Grammar Glossary Reference the Grammar Glossary found in Appendix III of the Teacher's Manual for more information about the concepts taught in the Fix It! Grammar series.

Quotation Marks—End Marks

Quotation marks indicate words are spoken.

Quote “I want the gold,” Attribution the princess declared.

The quote is the sentence in quotation marks. The attribution is the person speaking and the speaking verb.

If the quoted sentence makes a statement, place a period inside the closing quotation mark unless the attribution follows.

Attribution, “Quote.” “Quote,” attribution.

If the quoted sentence asks a question, place a question mark inside the closing quotation mark.

Attribution, “Quote?” “Quote?” attribution.

If the quoted sentence expresses strong emotion, place an exclamation mark inside the closing quotation mark.

Attribution, “Quote!” “Quote!” attribution.

Think About It!

Many words can be used as different parts of speech. However, a word can perform only one part of speech at a time. For example, running can be a verb, adjective, or noun.

Verb: The soldiers were running through the forest.

In this sentence running is a verb because it follows the helping verb were. A word that ends in -ing functions as a verb only if it follows a helping verb.

Adjective: The soldiers heard running water.

In this sentence running describes water. What kind of water? running. An adjective describes a noun or pronoun.

Noun: The second soldier said, “Running is fun.”

In this sentence running is a thing. A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea.
