

Lesson 14. Good (adjective) and Well (adverb)

An adjective is a word that describes (modifies) nouns. An adverb is a word that describes (modifies) verbs.

1. Good is an adjective that describes nouns. Tito is a good student.

Bears are good tree climbers.

2. Well is an adverb that describes verbs. Sheila skips rope very well.

My baby brother behaves well.

The correct word is circled in the sentences below. The monkey leaps ~~good~~/well from trees.

Dad made a good/~~well~~ pizza.

My mom read us a ~~good~~/well story.

Miguel writes very ~~good~~/well

Boomer is a good/~~well~~ dog.