

Jesus' Beach Breakfast

The story of the great catch of fish,
John 21:1–19, for children

Written by Stephenie Hovland

Illustrated by Dave Hill

In Galilee, down by the sea,
Sat James and John (of Zebedee).
Then Thomas and Nathanael, too,
With Simon Peter made a crew.

When Peter planned a fishing trip,
The men got in their little ship.
All night they cast their nets around,
But not one single fish was found.

The sun began to spread its rays;
So soon the dark would go away.
A stranger stood upon the beach.
They knew Him not but heard His speech.