The F-A-M-I-L-Y Way

F — Faith/Philosophy

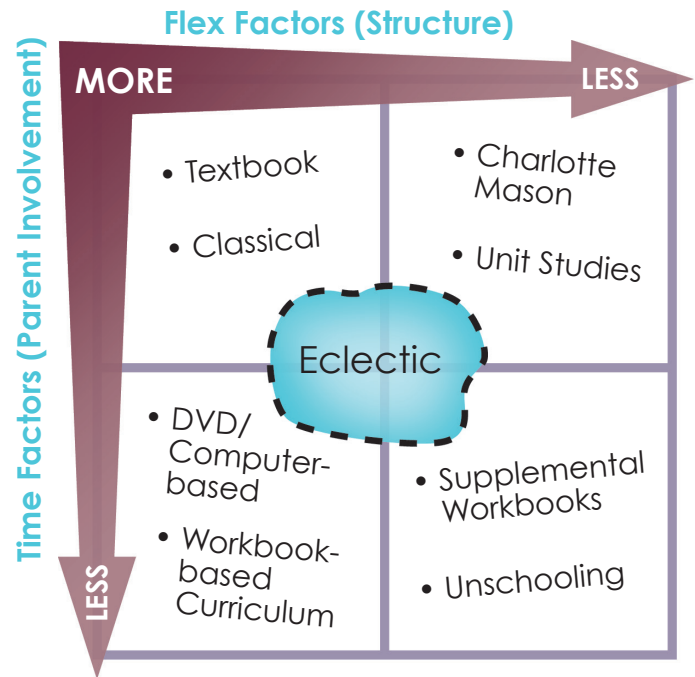

A — Approaches

M — Money

I — Individuals

L — Life

Y — You

Example Priorities:

- Instill Godly Character → Bible Study → Daily as First Subject
- Literature → Real Books → Read Alouds for all ages → Meal time
- Self-sufficiency → Personal/Family chores → Completion time → Monitor train/youngers
- Self-sufficiency → Personal school schedule → Expectation → Assignment deadlines

Notes: _____

Learning Styles

VISUAL LEARNERS...

- Learn through seeing.
- Like written instructions and prefer to take detailed notes as they listen to lectures.
- Learn best with visual materials such as pictures, charts, videos, illustrated textbooks, and handouts.
- Like to have a quiet place to study and use colorful highlighters to mark notes and texts.

Remember visual details with ease.

AUDITORY LEARNERS...

- Learn through listening.
- Like to read aloud and often like to talk to themselves or create musical jingles to help them learn new materials.
- Like to talk through a problem.
- Remember by talking out loud and they like to have things explained orally rather than through written instructions.

Like to have music on while they study.

KINESTHETIC LEARNERS...

- Learn through moving.
- Likes to stand, and learns best through active, whole body movement.
- Actively participates in learning.

Move around when talking or listening.

TACTILE LEARNERS...

- Learn by touching-prefer hands on activities.
- Hands on is key to learning through writing, typing, building.
- Love to share what they learn through projects.

Carry small objects around in hands.

Making Wise Lesson Choices

Key Principles:

- One-on-one time.
- The more children, the more planning needed.
- The more family involvements, the more planning needed.
